

HONEYGUIDE

Journal of Zimbabwean and Regional Ornithology

September 2010, Vol. 56(2)

CONTENTS

- 85 Afdis – Just another thing to do?
M.P.S. Irwin
- 86 BirdLife Zimbabwe 2009/2010 Council
- 87-94 Editorial: The Lendrum case, once again
B. Marshall, P. Lorber & P.J. Mundy
- 95-98 Success through adaptation: the case of the Purple-crested Turaco in Harare
M.P.S. Irwin
- 99-103 Seeing the trees for wood(land): nest site selection of Miombo raptors
N. Deacon
- 104-106 The South African population of the Common Quail: some unanswered questions
M.P.S. Irwin
- 107-108 “Out of Africa”: an exciting new project
P. Lorber
- 109-123 The status of birds in the Umfurudzi safari area, especially around Hippo Pools
D.V. Rockingham-Gill
- 124-125 Priest’s Birds of Southern Rhodesia and the Stevenson hoax
M.P.S. Irwin
- 126-139 Short Communications
Great White Pelican catching a Sharptooth Catfish; A Palm-nut Vulture in the Zambezi Valley; Spotted Eagle Owls in Kensington, Bulawayo; A Miombo Tit bird party; The Sombre Bulbul: slowly extending its range in Zimbabwe; Grooming interaction between a Yellow-bellied Greenbul and a Common Duiker; Habitat selection in the Mocking Chat; Starlings and avocados; Confusion in the literature regarding ‘Swee’ Waxbills; Black-faced Swee Waxbills at Juliasdale: more thoughts on the mystery; Changes to the vegetation of the Masembura Communal Land in the vicinity of the Chikupo Caves: the urgent need for an assessment of the uniqueness of the granite landscapes north-east of Harare.

- 140-145 The BOU conference, Birds & Climate Change, with comments on the way forward for South-central Africa
A. Cizek
- 146-160 Field observations: December 2009 – May 2010
C.T. Baker
- 161-162 Taxonomy
Some itinerant thoughts on the Mountain Pipit Anthus hoeschi
M.P.S. Irwin
- 163-166 Travel
Exploring the Zambezi between Cahora Bassa and Caia - John Bradshaw
- 167-169 Book Review
Handbook of the Birds of the World. Vol. 14
- 170 Guidelines for contributors
- Front cover Palmnut Vulture
- Centre I Dale Hanmer – in memoriam
ii. African Pittas at nest in north-eastern Zimbabwe
iii. Wattled Crane – land cover maps 1992 and 2008
iv. Peter Steyn receives the Gill Memorial Award in 2011
- Back cover Hwange birds: Capped Wheatear and Water Thick-knees
-

Editor Emeritus: M.P.S. Irwin
Editor: B. Marshall
Assistant Editor: K. Dixon
Production: J. Dupré

The opinions expressed by contributors in this journal are not necessarily those of the Editors or the Council of BirdLife Zimbabwe.

© BirdLife Zimbabwe

35 Clyde Road • Eastlea • Harare: P.O. Box RV 100 • Runiville • Harare
Telephones: (04) 481496 & 490208 • E-mail: birds@zol.co.zw • Web: www.birdlifezimbabwe.co.zw

A Palm-nut Vulture, apparently an adult but showing plumage variations, seen near Rukomechi Camp, Mana Pools National Park, in May 2009.

Photo: © Kevin van Breda